I had collected all of them by the time I left the company in 2009; however, in 2011 my husband left me for another woman. I was devastated and decided I didn't need romance so I gave away all romance novels in my possession. 2 years later I had realized that your books were about more than romance!

Before I worked here, I wondered if HM Land Registry was full of clerical staff pushing piles of paperwork around, like a scene from Terry Gilliam's 'Brazil'. I was happy to discover that HM Land Registry is actually very forward-looking and is using digital technology to transform how land registration works. I think some of our customers may have a similarly false impression though.
