We have a deep need to win at whatever we do, and perhaps an even stronger need to avoid losing (at least appearing to lose). The zero sum assumption. We are naturally programmed as a competitive species who will fight for our side against all competitors. In doing so, we are assuming a win-lose scenario.

The Need to Win - Changing minds

I want to win the lottery to help myself and families. I also would like to donate some to those less fortunate. Marion Niefert Bruwer. When I win the lottery I will buy a property for myself where My son and his family and his mother in law can stay . I will buy a second property where friends who are battling can stay for free.
