If it is your first time to Yorkshire Dales, a walk to the base or even the top of Malham Cove is a great way to be introduced to the dales. It is a 23-minute drive from Skipton to Malham car park. After parking up wonder through the very pretty town of Malham where the calming trickling of Malham beck accompanies you.

This route takes part of the 2014 Tour de France route - in reverse - climbing steadily to the historic Dales village of Middleham, with Richard III's castle and gallops. You then enter beautiful Coverdale, climbing along narrow, winding lanes, before descending and crossing the River Cover for the second time.
